IN REMEMBRANCE

The JFK 50 Mile lost three close friends over the last seven months. Each of these men were involved for 10 years or more with the JFK 50 as participants or helpers.

BILL DRAPER

Silver Spring, MD

January 3, 1933

April 23, 1988

Bill Draper was a JFK 50 Mile helper for over 18 years. He was actively involved with our awards and contributed many uncompensated hours towards the assembly and engraving of our plaques. Bill was also here each year to lend a hand with race day chores and offer encouragement to participants.

WOODY HAWKINS

Boonsboro, MD

August 23, 1956

August 27, 1988

As an employee of the Maryland Park Service and a resident of Boonsboro, Woody Hawkins was right at home on the JFK 50 Mile course. So much so, in fact, that he finished the event 10 times. Woody, like all JFK 50 participants, was anxious to reach the finish line, but he still always found time for a ready smile and words of encouragement to his fellow participants.

Frank Boyer

Warren, OH

October 2, 1934

September 22, 1988

Frank Boyer first appeared on the JFK 50 Mile scene in 1975. He successfully reached the finish line 12 times since that debut in 1975. Frank and his wife Eleanor traveled extensively to running events around the country, and as they did so, no one was ever as greater spokesman for the JFK 50 Mile as Frank Boyer.

I'm sure we all share the feeling that somehow, someday, there will be thoughts of encouragement for us from these dear departed friends as we travel today along the way of the JFK.
